

MONOFUSE – The Point Of No Return

Don` t need your love

Verse

I` m alone that` s ok
Don` t have time anyway
Cause I live by night to survive my day
It` s just me and my boys
Something no one destroys
I don` t have no time to play with toys

Chorus

You will lose this fight
I don` t need your love tonight
Step in and get off
I just don` t need your love

Verse

I am fine with me
Just to live so free
And I` m not the kind that wouldn` t see
You want to hunt me down
See me on the ground
You want another piece for your muscle crown

You have to give it up
Because I` ll break your heart

Chorus

Bridge

I don` t need you look at me
I know what you see, I know what you see
(Just) another one of your trophies
I won` t be

Verse

I` m alone
That` s ok
Don` t need you
To make my day

There is more
(Than) you can see
So much more you` ll never see in me

Chorus
