

MONOFUSE – The Point Of No Return

Too Far

Verse

This has gone too far
Don't pretend to know who you are
Stop to defend

The words out of you head don't tell the truth
They can't be misread
Don't waste the youth

Chorus

Turn down your voice
(You) boost your own cliché
Be the one you're selling us today
You'll be gone and another one will be
Just the one that you want us to see

Verse

Take a step back now and think for yourself
Don't make us stake a bow
It's five to twelve

You must understand that freedom is a choice
We don't follow your command
But find our own rejoice
